

Before you start reading, I want to apologize if any of the following words offend you, because I can't find a better way to say it.

To all someone whom only know one side of the story and whom do not know much about Chinese history:

Let me give you some solid FACTS who Tibet was, is, and always will be a part of China. So you can take your time reconsider about "Free Tibet"

FACT#1, China is NOT a single Ethnic nation; in face 56 ethnic groups make up China, including Han, Mongols, Koreans, and Muslim Tibetans etc. and we are all united as CHINESE, in other word, China is just as Multicultural as Canada, so DEAL WITH THAT!

FACT#2, Tibet has been a part of China for thousands of years.

Yuan Dynasty (1271AD-1368AD)

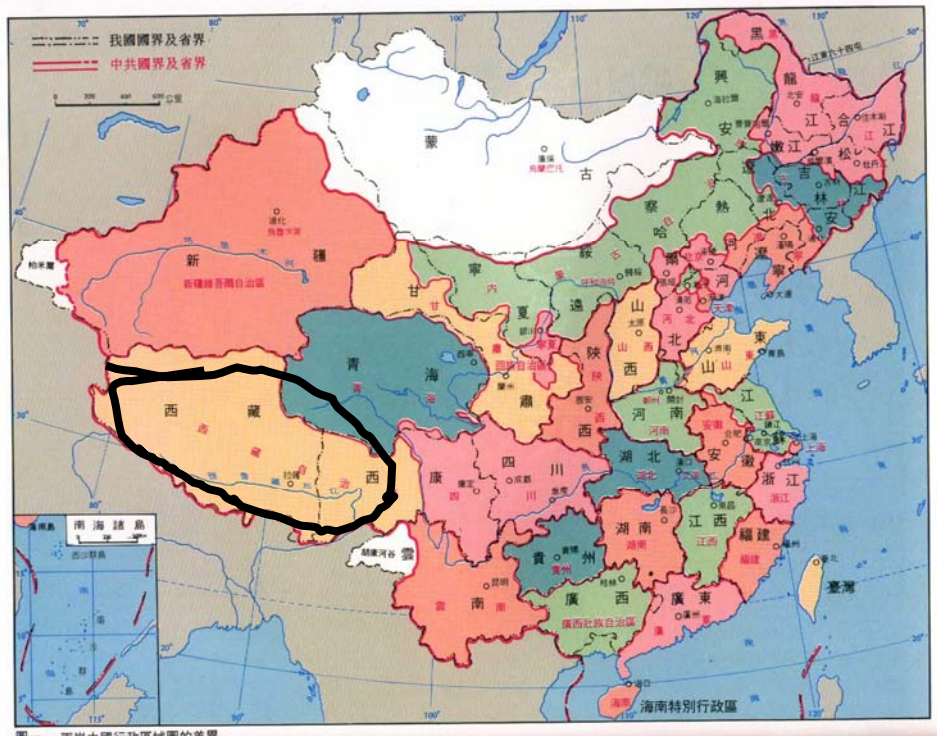

Ming Dynasty (1368AD- 1644AD)

Qing Dynasty (1644AD-1911AD)

Republic of China (1911AD)

People Republic of China (1949AD)

Are we now clear on “Legitimacy”?

FUNNY part is that Tibet has been a part of China way BEFORE US/ Canada/ AUS/ New Zealand was even “found” by the Europeans. Taking about “Legitimacy”??? ONCE you guys out of North American/ Oceania, and Free the natives, we shall out of Tibet in no time.

FACT#3

1903AD, due the weak of Qing Dynasty, British gained control over Tibet as a colonial region and treated them as slaves.

FACT#4

Prior to 1950 when Chinese regained Tibet, Tibet was still in a slavery society under Dalai Lama's puppet regime.

The following are two letters and a child skin that are still in the archives area of Tibet museum:

According to this letter, for a Lama Ceremony, they wanted “4 heads, 10 intestine, clean blood (from women who never had sex before), blood, dust of relic, menses blood of widow lady, blood of lazarus, all kind of meat, all kinds of hearts, shade water, dust of tornado, bramble grown to the north, dog's dejection, human's dejection, boots of butcher, etc. They must be sent to  before 20th”

A Child's skin was taken off by slaves' owner for Lama Ceremony.

(dzh.mop.com/topic/readSub_7451890_0_0.html)

)

NOW do you really think Dalai Lama would be happy when he lost all his privileges during the slavery period?

Now he talks about “Free Tibet”????? How Ironic?

FACT#5

Dalai Lama was, and still is, funded by the CIA to separate Tibet from China.

The Dalai Lama and Maj Gen Uban inspect the SFF at Chakrate- Jun 1972 (The CIA's Secret War in Tibet).

In 1950s, CIA and the British forced the Indian government to accept Dalai Lama in India and been funding his campaign ever since.

Last year, US awarded Congressional Gold Medal to the Dalai Lama.

FACT#6

The Chinese government spends 200millions (40millions US) a year to develops Tibet (even more now), building schools, hospitals, infrastructure, encourages new grads go to develop the west of China. Is that the “brute force” Dalai Lama talked about????

Tell you what, China is no Yugoslavia if that is what all you are trying to do. And the rest of you, Britain: Scotland, Northern Ireland independence.

US: Free Texas Republic or just all pack up and go back to Europe.

Canada: All pack up leave and give the land back to the native people.

Japan: Hokkaido Independence, Okinawa Independence.

Australia: Stop treating the natives like crap or just pack up leave for Europe as well.

Say what?? If you can't do those things, well then don't expect us to do the same. Even when Chinese Tibet has longer histories than some of those countries combined...

Moreover,

Is that “peaceful protest” Said by Dalai Lama??

Setting fires, burning the flags, beating firefighters and policemen???

A fire fighter got beat up on the ground and the crowd.

Who's attacking whom???

Dalai Lama and his masters from the West must be proud.

Thank you, the west, your fair news media had never stop attacking other countries sovereignty and your governments never stop trying to split other countries apart. But not for one second had you guys questioned about your own existences and rule over the native people... so, Bravo...and dream on... for China to be next Yugoslavia, Bosnia.

Because we know that is our country we called home and no one could ever, ever break it apart, so deal with that.

PS,

The commons are quoted from BBC online forum:

- “When BBC and other western media report that Dalai only want "autonomy", they never go into the detailed content of this so-called "autonomy". Why is that? it is another example of western propaganda. What Dalai really want is : 1) Great Tibet instead of the current Tibetian autonomous region. Great Tibet includes : whole QingHai; more than half of SiChuan; part of GanSu and a small portion of YunNan. Looking at this map, would any chinese nods? 2) To grant diplomatic and military power to chinese goverment, but only nominally. Tibet still keep separate diplomatic institute in forein countries; the chinese military existence should only strong enough to protect theirselves. Is this autonomy or a springbord to independence? I hope BBC could dig into this issue and reprot it fairly in English to mainsteam viewers. By the way, when disscuss tibetian issue, we should forget "autonomy" for now and only talk about independence or not.” - kurtcobain, From US
- Any culture in poor areas can be overwhelmed by an outside more developed culture. This is why you hardly see much of American-Indian culture in the US. Today's problems of Tibetan culture are not only caused by the Han Chinese influence but also the western influence. Like other parts of China, Tibetans are changing when they are exposed to the western movies, music and way of life (through western tourists). It is believed that globalization will accelerate this change. - Mike, US
- Any contact which aims at easing conflicts and misunderstanding should be most welcome. As a Chinese, i think that allowing Tibet independence is impossible. It not only causes diasters to the Chinese government but also to Tibet people themselves. – Peter From HK
- Dalai lama didn't say Tibet want to be independent, what he really want was self-dministration. Tibet has been part of China for hundreds years, not begining from 1950. These basic issues have to be made clear. - Hantangxiongfang, Chinese, From England
- I really don't believe in Da lai La Ma, in fact for the good of people, religion is not useful, sometime religion can comfort peole, but if if religion define the law or rule, that's a disaster for human sociaty, I hate this guy involve both religion and politics. – njdq, From US
- The Dalai Lama knows that he is a man not a living god and he is getting old and he has to face the reality that he doesn't have many Tibetan followers as many years ago. – Jonh, From US

At last, I would apologize again if I said anything offends you.

Kubla, Chinese, a student in Canada
email: kul911@gmail.com

Reference:

Adapt from the Video “Tibet WAS, IS, and ALWAYS WILL BE a part of China”

(<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x9QNKB34cJo&eurl=http://news.wenxuecity.com/messages/200803/news-gb2312-543922.html>)

6Park.com (<http://club.6park.com/military/messages/51647.html>)

BBC China

(http://news.bbc.co.uk/chinese/simp/hi/newsid_2240000/newsid_2248800/2248803.stm)

The CIA's Secret War in Tibet (by Kenneth Conboy and James Morrison University Press of Kansas)

XinHua online China